Q1: What is the purpose of this test case report? A1: The purpose of this test case report is to document and report the results of testing the Facebook login and registration forms to ensure they function correctly.

Q2: What are the test steps for TC-001? A2: The test steps for TC-001 involve opening a web browser, navigating to the Facebook login page, entering valid login credentials, clicking the "Log In" button, and verifying the successful login and redirection.

Q3: What is the expected result for TC-002? A3: The expected result for TC-002 is that an error message is displayed, indicating that the login information is incorrect.

Q4: What is the test data for TC-003? A4: The test data for TC-003 includes valid first name, last name, mobile number or email address, password, date of birth, and gender.

Q5: What is the expected result for TC-004? A5: The expected result for TC-004 is that error messages are displayed for each invalid field during the registration process.